Visiting Motorists

While you are in Corpus Christi during the Fourth of July celebrations, make this your headquarters. We have ample storage room and arranged in a manner that makes your car easily accessible at all times.

Here you will find everything for the motorist—oil, gasoline, accessories, tires and tubes, a large wash rack in charge of an expert car-washer, where your car is thoroughly cleaned, should you desire.

Too, our repair department is one of the most complete in South Texas.

The above is a picture of the float The Cigar entered in the Fourth of July nearly twenty-two years ago. It was awarded first prize in a large field of entrants. Seated at the "cigar's" desk is Lulu Abraham, now Mrs. New Braunfels. The "devil" is George J. Merriman, who twenty-two years ago started to learn the printer's trade in his father's office. Mr. Merriman is now cashier of the First State bank. The little fairy is Elizabeth Merriman, then a toddler, but who now lives in San Antonio with her family. The horses were owned by Mrs. Dunn. Mrs. E. T. Merriman designed the float.

spelled being destroyed and snuck before the earth melted. Gases and rockies of various kinds were sent down from the machine in great quantities and red fire, burned on the leaves, making the destruction look like the real thing. There was a great deal of noise and confusion and looks and faces were strained, watching the people run and seek for the safe, safety of the boats.

The new department took part in the research at July parades, one time here and a home-tourism exhibit on Chapman's Island with visiting teams from China, Vietnam and other places. ED Shumacher, the present chief, says it has a contact with 600 white advertising agencies. And he knows.

Corpus Christi) had a number of visitors yesterday on the Fourth of July and invited both Frenchmen. There were many French and American visitors. On one occasion Farmer Charles came into town with his herd of sheep and cattle, including one of the animals. In the parades he had his team of two ponies and others mostly ponies. H. B. Farnsworth had a number of visitors from the United States and Canada and from Australia. The

$1295

The Cleveland Six has won a reputation from the time it was first announced. It is beautiful in appearance, and because of its light weight gives a high gasoline, oil and tire mileage.

The Cleveland Six comfortably seats five passengers. Due to its rigid construction it is easy riding. It has the elasticity of the high-priced six-cylinder car, yet is offered you at four-cylinder prices.

The Chandler Six, in view of the recent reduction, is now more than ever before regarded as one of the premier cars in the heavier six-cylinder class.

The Easy Payment Plan under which we offer you the Cleveland or the Chandler provider for 40 per cent cash at purchase. The balance is payable in ten equal monthly payments. The interest charge is 8 per cent. No brokerage charge is made. The entire transaction is made in our office.
